

TransAct Technologies Names Tracey S. Winslow as Global Chief Revenue Officer

March 20, 2023

Lou Kelly Promoted to Senior Vice President of Sales, Casino & Gaming

HAMDEN, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 20, 2023-- TransAct Technologies Incorporated (Nasdaq: TACT), a global leader in software-driven technology and printing solutions for high growth markets, announced today that Tracey Winslow has been named Global Chief Revenue Officer, effective immediately. Ms. Winslow joined TransAct in 2005 as Senior Vice President, Marketing after a successful 22-year career at Xerox, where she left the company as Worldwide Marketing Manager, Production Color Marketing. At TransAct, she was named Senior Vice President, Sales & Marketing for the Point-of-Sale- and Banking market in 2006, before being promoted to the world-wide Casino and Gaming sales leadership role in 2007. Since taking on the Casino and Gaming leadership role, Ms. Winslow has built out the global sales and service organization while working with the both the TransAct internal team and customers to get technology approved in markets around the world.

Lou Kelly, a fifteen-year Casino and Gaming Sales Manager for TransAct, has been promoted to Senior Vice President, Casino & Gaming to replace Ms. Winslow. Mr. Kelly will be responsible for managing the Americas and European Casino & Gaming sales teams.

"Tracey will assume all responsibility for directing the Company's overall sales in both the FST and Casino & Gaming markets. Her role will include creating and implementing strategic sales initiatives, while leading our sales teams, customer, and technical support staffs. Tracey understands our company culture and the processes needed to be a successful sales leader at TransAct. I am excited to promote her and Lou to their new roles," said Bart C. Shulman, CEO of TransAct Technologies.

Gaurav Bahri, former Chief Revenue Officer-FST market, has left Transact. The Company thanks him for his time and service.
