

TransAct's Epic 950(R) Printer Selected Exclusively by Resorts World Casino New York City at Aqueduct Racetrack

HAMDEN, Conn., Nov. 16, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- TransAct Technologies Incorporated (Nasdaq:TACT), a global leader in market-specific printers for transaction-based industries, today announced that its Epic 950® printer was selected exclusively by Resorts World Casino New York City at Aqueduct Racetrack to be installed in all of the casino's 5,000 video lottery terminals. The casino opened on October 28, 2011.

"We are very excited with this exclusive win, putting TransAct printers in New York City's first-ever casino, and showing once again that TransAct's superior printers and technology are being recognized on a global scale," said Bart C. Shuldman, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of TransAct Technologies. "The Epic 950® offers everything that operators seek in a Ticket-In, Ticket-Out (TITO) printer — the newest technology and advanced features including quick disconnect, reliable ticket burst and present, paper low ticket sensing, the ability to print in two colors and in multiple languages, and an easy path to connect to TransAct's EPICENTRAL™ Print System and our patented ServerPort technology. We are excited to further our relationship with Resorts World to help them capitalize on all the features and advanced technology of the Epic 950®."

"We were pleased to choose the Epic 950® printer from TransAct for our casino floor due to its features and functions and capability to be connected to EPICENTRAL™ in the future," said Scott Molina, Director of Slot Operations for Resorts World Casino New York City. "We are grateful to important partners like TransAct, whose commitment to this project has helped propel us to where we are today."

About TransAct Technologies Incorporated

TransAct Technologies Incorporated (Nasdaq:TACT) is a leader in developing and manufacturing market-specific printers for transaction-based industries. These industries include casino, gaming, lottery, banking, kiosk and point-of-sale. Each individual market has distinct, critical requirements for printing and the transaction is not complete until the receipt and/or ticket is produced. TransAct printers are designed from the ground up based on market specific requirements and are sold under the Ithaca® and Epic product brands. TransAct distributes its printers through OEMs, value-added resellers, selected distributors, and direct to end-users. TransAct has over two million printers installed around the world. TransAct is committed to world-class printer service, spare parts and accessories required by a growing worldwide installed base of printers. Beyond printers, TransAct is a leader in providing printing supplies to the full transaction printer market. Through its TransAct Services Group, TransAct provides a complete range of supplies and consumables items used in the printing and scanning activities of customers in the hospitality, banking, retail, gaming and government markets. Through its webstore, <http://www.transactsupplies.com>, and a direct selling team, TransAct addresses the on-line demand for these products. TransAct is headquartered in Hamden, CT.
