Item 5. Other Events.

On April 7, 2000, TransAct Technologies Incorporated (the "Company") sold an aggregate of 4,000 shares of Series B Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series Preferred Stock") and warrants to purchase 44,444 shares of its Common Stock (the "Warrants") to Advance Capital Partners, L.P. and its affiliate for an aggregate purchase price of $4 million. After deducting placement agent commissions and other offering expenses, the Company received net proceeds of approximately $3.8 million from the sale. The Company intends to use the net proceeds for general working capital purposes, including the Company's inkjet printer development programs and various marketing initiatives.

Dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock accrue at the rate of 7% per annum and are payable on a quarterly basis. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible, at the option of the holder in any event and automatically upon the occurrence of certain specified events, into 111.11 shares of Common Stock (subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain specified events). The holders of the Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to elect one director to serve on the Company's Board of Directors. On all matters other than the election of directors, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to vote as a single class with the holders of the Common Stock and each share of Series B Preferred Stock is entitled to the number of votes that is equal to the number of shares of Common Stock into which the Series B Preferred Stock is convertible. The holders of Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to certain registration rights with respect to the Common Stock into which the Series A Preferred Stock is convertible and the Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants.

The Warrants are exercisable through April 7, 2005 at a price per share of Common Stock of $9.00 (subject to adjustment upon certain specified events).
